COMPLAINT

NOW COMES the Plaintiff, MARIA MARGARIS, by and through her attorneys, LAW OFFICES OF TODD J. STEARN, P.C., and for her complaint against the above-named Defendant states unto this Honorable Court as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. The Plaintiff, MARIA MARGARIS, is a resident of the City of Brownstown, County of Wayne and State of Michigan.

2. For all relevant times, the above-named Defendant, WAL-MART STORES EAST, LP (WALMART) was a duly incorporated corporation and was in possession and control of a property located at 23800 Allen Road, in the City of Woodhaven, County of Wayne and State of Michigan. The resident agent is the Corporation Company, 40600 Ann Arbor Rd., E., Ste. 201. Plymouth, MI 48170

3. This cause of action occurred in the City of Woodhaven, County of Wayne and State of Michigan.

4. The amount in controversy herein exceeds Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00), exclusive of interest, costs and attorney's fees.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

5. On or about March 14, 2021, on a property located 23800 Allen Road, in the City of Woodhaven, County of Wayne and State of Michigan (hereinafter "the Premises"), the Plaintiff, MARIA MARGARIS, while a business invitee of Defendant, did slip and fall as a direct and proximate result of clear water on a bathroom floor that had leaked out of a defective sink.

6. At all times herein mentioned and at the time of the committing of the grievances by the Defendant and the sustaining of injuries by the Plaintiff as herein alleged, the Defendant was responsible for maintaining the Premises.

7. For all relevant times, the Defendant then and there induced the public, specifically Plaintiff, to believe that the Premises, entrances and approaches thereof, and every part of the said Premises, were conducted and kept and maintained in a safe and proper condition.

8. The Defendant knew or should have known of a dangerous condition created by the water on the floor of the premises.

9. Defendant knew or should have known that the Plaintiff did not know of the dangerous condition or that Plaintiff would not take steps to protect himself.

10. At all times herein mentioned, Plaintiff was in the exercise of due care and caution and free from negligence on Plaintiff's part.

11. The Defendant owed a duty to Plaintiff, and, notwithstanding said duties, Defendant did violate and breach the same in the following particulars:

- a. Failing to maintain the premises in a safe and reasonable way.
- b. Failing to take reasonable steps for the prevention of injuries and to warn its invitees of potential foreseeable dangers.
- c. Failing to warn Plaintiff of all reasonably foreseeable dangers;
- d. Failing to provide notice or warning to the Plaintiff, who was lawfully upon the Premises, of the dangerous and hazardous condition that Defendant knew, or should have known, existed on the Premises;
- e. Failing to inspect and maintain the Premises in a reasonably safe condition so as not to create a dangerous and hazardous condition for persons who were upon the premises;
- f. Failing to warn the Plaintiff of the dangerous condition that existed upon the Premises when Defendant knew, or should have known, that Plaintiff had no way of knowing of the dangerous condition;
- g. Failing to hire and employ personnel or staff that would properly maintain the Premises and not allow a dangerous and hazardous condition to remain on the sidewalk;
- h. Such other breaches of the standard of care as are discovered throughout the course and scope of this case.

12. As a result of the negligence of the Defendant as aforementioned, Plaintiff sustained injuries, which injuries have caused Plaintiff pain, suffering, disability and mental anguish, to wit:

- a. Complete rotator cuff tear requiring surgery;
- b. Ongoing shoulder pain;
- c. Such other injuries as are discovered throughout the course and scope of this case.

13. Defendant's negligence may have exacerbated a pre-existing condition from which the Plaintiff suffered.

14. As a direct and proximate result of the negligence, and carelessness of the Defendant, the Plaintiff has sustained injuries which include, but are not limited to:

- a. lost wages, past and future;
- b. lost potential for employment promotions and advancements.
- c. loss due to decreased effectiveness at employment;
- d. pain, and suffering, past and future, including but not limited to:
 - 1) physical pain and suffering;
 - 2) mental anguish;
 - 3) denial of social pleasure;
 - 4) embarrassment, humiliation and mortification;
- e. Medical expenses, past, present and future;
- f. Such other damages as are allowable by Michigan law.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully prays that this Court enter judgment in favor of Plaintiff and against the Defendant, in an amount that the jury or Court determines to be fair, just and adequate compensation for the injuries and damages sustained by the Plaintiff.

Respectfully submitted,
